Dear Jane,

Will you add your name to a telegram I'm sending to President Bush?

Please sign the enclosed Western Union Telegram Authorization Form and return it to me within the next 5 days!

Our telegram to President Bush urges him to use his State of the Union Address to ban cloning, end open immigration and defend traditional marriage. And I want to send this telegram with a minimum of 50,000 signatures from pro-family Americans like you and me.

But, Jane, I cannot add your name unless you sign the enclosed Western Union Telegram Authorization Form.

It is critical that President Bush outline his support for these three issues at the State of the Union. And let me tell you why . . .

As the 2002 election approaches, the liberals' game plan is becoming clear. Liberals in Congress will be running on the "incumbent protection" platform . . .

. . . citing their votes to defend our nation in the aftermath of September 11th and playing up their so-called "bipartisanship."

You and I know that their "bipartisanship" is nothing more than a fig leaf and that the hard-core liberals led by Tom Daschle in the U.S. Senate are already working to undermine President Bush.

But with voters' approval of Congress near record highs — some polls have it over 70% — liberal Senators and Congressmen could squeak through and win reelection.

That's why it is critically important for President Bush to take a firm pro-family, pro-American stand during his State of the Union Address.

Over, please

To defeat the liberals and win back conservative Republican control of the U.S. Senate, we've got to define the liberals on our issues and show voters the real difference.

More importantly, these issues threaten our families and our security.

- A Ban on Cloning -- The recent news that a for-profit company in Massachusetts had successfully cloned a human embryo sent waves of shock through the country. A bill to ban human cloning that passed the U.S. House is now stalled in the Senate. It is imperative that action be taken now or we run the risk of a "brave new world" even worse than the eugenics programs of Nazi Germany.
- An End to Open Immigration -- For years, our country has allowed immigrants to enter our borders with little information on their background, and once they are in the U.S., there has been little done to track their whereabouts. In the wake of the September 11th attacks, it is clear that we must stop this outrageous lax policy on immigration. Yet, groups like the ACLU are attacking President's Bush's plans for tightening our borders and our ability to detain and question suspects.
- Defend Traditional Marriage -- The radical left has been working in states like Massachusetts, California, Vermont and Hawaii to allow homosexuals to be married. In California, we expect a bill to be passed by both the state Assembly and Senate by the end of January that in essence allows same sex marriage. And couples are flocking to Vermont to receive a "civil union" marriage certificate and then going back to their home states to sue for recognition of their "marriage." You and I know that this is wrong, but unless there is a constitutional amendment to define marriage as a union between one man and one woman, the courts at the state level will get to decide this important issue. And we know how Bill Clinton packed the judiciary with his left-wing cronies before leaving office. Currently, there is a movement to introduce the Federal Marriage Amendment in Congress. CWF must work diligently to ensure that this constitutional amendment is introduced and passed.

You have stood with me over the years in our fight to pass our pro-life, pro-family, pro-national defense agenda. I can't tell you how much your support has meant to me.

But now as we enter the critical 2002 election cycle, it is imperative that CWF continue to lead the fight for family, faith and freedom.

Remember, there is virtually no other pro-family political action committee. Focus on the Family, FRC and the Christian Coalition are wonderful organizations, but the law prohibits them from engaging in direct efforts to defeat candidates. So it is up to CWF!

The first step in this fight is to ask President Bush to take a strong stand for our agenda in his State of the Union Address. So please do two things for me today:

Next page, please

- 1) Sign the enclosed Western Union Telegram Authorization Form, allowing me to add your name to our Telegram to the President; and
- 2) Return your Authorization Form along with your most generous contribution of $500, $250, $100, $50 or even $25 to help CWF lay the groundwork to elect a pro-life, pro-family, pro-national defense majority to the House and Senate in November.

Even with President Bush in the White House, unless we can give him a conservative majority in the House and Senate, his agenda will be stalled. We have already seen this happen since Senator Jeffords switched parties and gave Democrats control of the Senate.

And the talk of bipartisanship after the September 11th attacks quickly turned to business as usual with Senator Tom Daschle leading the charge to stop President Bush from passing much needed legislation.

We must start now if we want to be successful in November. Your gift today of $500, $250, $100, $50 or even $25 helps CWF lay the groundwork to support candidates who will fight to pass our agenda on the national level.

The liberal left is adept at building coalitions to turn out their voters on election day. We saw this in the 1998, 2000 and the 2001 elections.

Terry McAuliffe, the DNC chairman, boasted after the 2001 elections, "We invested heavily in the Party's grass roots, and it paid off. We put in place new programs that both solidified and expanded our base. We used technology to identify more base voters and delivered our message to them in multiple languages. We ran unprecedented voter registration and get-out-the-vote programs in all our targeted races. We deployed nearly 50 full-time staff members to targeted campaigns around the country. In New Jersey, we spent about $4.6 million on the air and on the ground. And in Virginia, we invested $1.3 million to support the candidates and the Coordinated Campaign's activity in the field. There's no question that yesterday's victories will serve as a springboard heading into 2002, when I believe we can expand our Senate majority, take back the House, win key gubernatorial races and regain state legislative majorities."

You can see what conservatives face this year.

To counter these efforts, CWF must organize our own grassroots efforts in targeted states. As close as the 2000 Presidential election was, we know how critical the get-out-the-vote effort is.

The time to start this effort for 2002 is now, or . . .

. . . we face a U.S. House led by Dick Gephardt, Maxine Waters and Nita Lowey and a Senate with Ted Kennedy and Hillary Clinton forcing their anti-life, pro-homosexual agenda on the country.

Over, please

It all starts now. We must make sure that President Bush lays out a pro-life, pro-family, pro-national defense agenda in his State of the Union. This will let the liberals know that we are organized and ready to take back control of the debate in Washington.

So please take a few minutes right now to sign the enclosed Western Union Telegram Authorization Form and send it back to me along with your most generous contribution.

Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Gary L. Bauer

P.S. We don't have much time before President Bush's State of the Union. Please join with me and thousands of other pro-life, pro-family, pro-national defense conservatives in sending President Bush a Western Union Telegram urging him to publicly stand up for our pro-life, pro-family, pro-national defense conservative agenda and announce his support of legislation that will protect children and families.

The State of the Union is the President's chance to lay out his agenda for the whole country. We need to make sure that conservatives show their support for our pro-life, pro-family, pro-national defense agenda. So please, sign the enclosed Western Union Telegram Authorization Form and send it back to me today. And if you can, please send a generous contribution to CWF to help us start preparing for the November elections now. Thank you! GLB
